

The logo for REACH is a rectangular box with a blue-to-cyan gradient background. The word "REACH" is written in large, bold, orange capital letters. The bottom edge of the box is irregular and jagged, resembling a torn piece of paper or a horizon line. Below the box, there is a thin, wavy green line.

REACH

Reading EXPANDS
ALL CHILDREN'S Horizons

What Is REACH?

REACH is a K-1 literacy initiative that will bolster reading achievement and help students become 21st Century learners by engaging parents as their children's at-home learning partners.

REACH is funded 100% by
Ohio's Straight A Innovation Fund

What Is REACH?

REACH is a consortium of:

- Piqua City Schools
- Milton-Union Exempted Village Schools
- Franklin-Monroe Local Schools
- The Ohio State University's Crane Center for Early Childhood Research and Policy
- Wright State University's Center for Evaluation Research
- Public Media Connect/ThinkTV

Designed by Local Reading Specialists

REACH's engaging multimedia reading modules will motivate parents and excite children to practice reading.

Hosted online by Think^{TV} through the free digital media library, PBS LearningMedia.
